Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Master Sergeant Todd A. Otterberg's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Master Sergeant Otterberg devoted more than 26 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a Production Recruiter and Area NCOIC within the Recruiting and Retention Battalion, and has been recognized as a Chief's 54 winner on three separate occasions, along with providing tremendous support and leadership to his units and fellow recruiting NCO's; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Master Sergeant Otterberg continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Master Sergeant Todd A. Otterberg for more than 26 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 31, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
